Ypsilanti Offers Bonus.

Ypsilanti, Mich., March 6.—The common council has voted an $11,000 bonus to the Ann Arbor Hay Press Co. The money is to be invested in a site and building, and the title is to remain in the city for five years. At the end of this period the deed is to be given to the company if it shall have employed an average of 25 men 10 months in each year. Frank T. Newton, former sheriff, is president and manager of the company, and most of the stockholders are Ann Arbor people. The company has a small plant in Ann Arbor which will be moved here when the new factory is completed, about July 1.
